PRESS NOTE

MPD-2041: ONLINE PUBLIC CONSULTATION WITH YOUTH IN DELHI

Delhi Development Authority (DDA) in association with The National Institute of Urban Affairs (NIUA), is preparing the next Master Plan of Delhi- 2041 (MPD-2041). As part of the process, a series of discussions and consultations have been carried out with various stakeholders and civil society groups to seek inputs from the people of Delhi that will help drive the agenda for the Master Plan. One of the important stakeholders are the youth, who form a significant portion of Delhi's population. To get insights from the youth of Delhi, a series of Youth Sabhas are being organized. The objective of these meetings is to understand the issues faced by the youth (aged between 15-30 years) in the city and discuss possible planning solutions.

The sessions are spread across the months of September and October, starting with an introduction session on 18th September, 2020, followed by 3 Youth Sabhas. The detailed schedule of the sessions are available on DDA website and twitter handles @official_DDA , @NIUA_India. Use the #YouthforDelhi2041 to know more!

Be a part of the online consultations by registering through the link given below. Subsequently, the event link with the time slots of the meeting will be shared via email.
